Sixty Reasons to Celebrate Spring

After a severe winter on the Granite Belt, the vines, the winemakers and the cooks are stirring – ready for the annual spring celebration due to begin on 28 September on Queensland's Southern Downs.

While blossoms abound on Stanthorpe's fruit trees and the buds begin to burst on the vines, spring is the time when acclaimed winemakers release their latest vintages.

This year's Granite Belt Spring Wine Festival season encompasses almost sixty events over six weeks in the Queensland wine capital.

With excellent wines and fabulous accommodation, visitors in spring can choose from:

- Dozens of featured events
- Sparkling breakfasts
- Lunches with winemakers
- Dinners with a difference
- Music and comedy to whet your appetite

The winemakers are waiting to welcome you, so bring your friends and colleagues, bring your family or just escape with your partner. Behind the kitchen doors on the Granite Belt menus are being devised for every palate, whether you want to relax al fresco or sit down to a special black tie dinner.

The festival runs from 28 September until 11 November. For more information visit www.springwinefest.com.au or phone 1800 SO COOL.
